

Palliative Care Teams Navigating COVID-19: Lessons from the Frontlines

Tommy Morel, MD, Chairman of Palliative Medicine and Supportive Care at Ochsner Health

Susan Nelson, MD, FAAHPM, System Chair of Palliative Medicine and Supportive Care, Chair of Bioethics at Ochsner Health

April 22, 2020

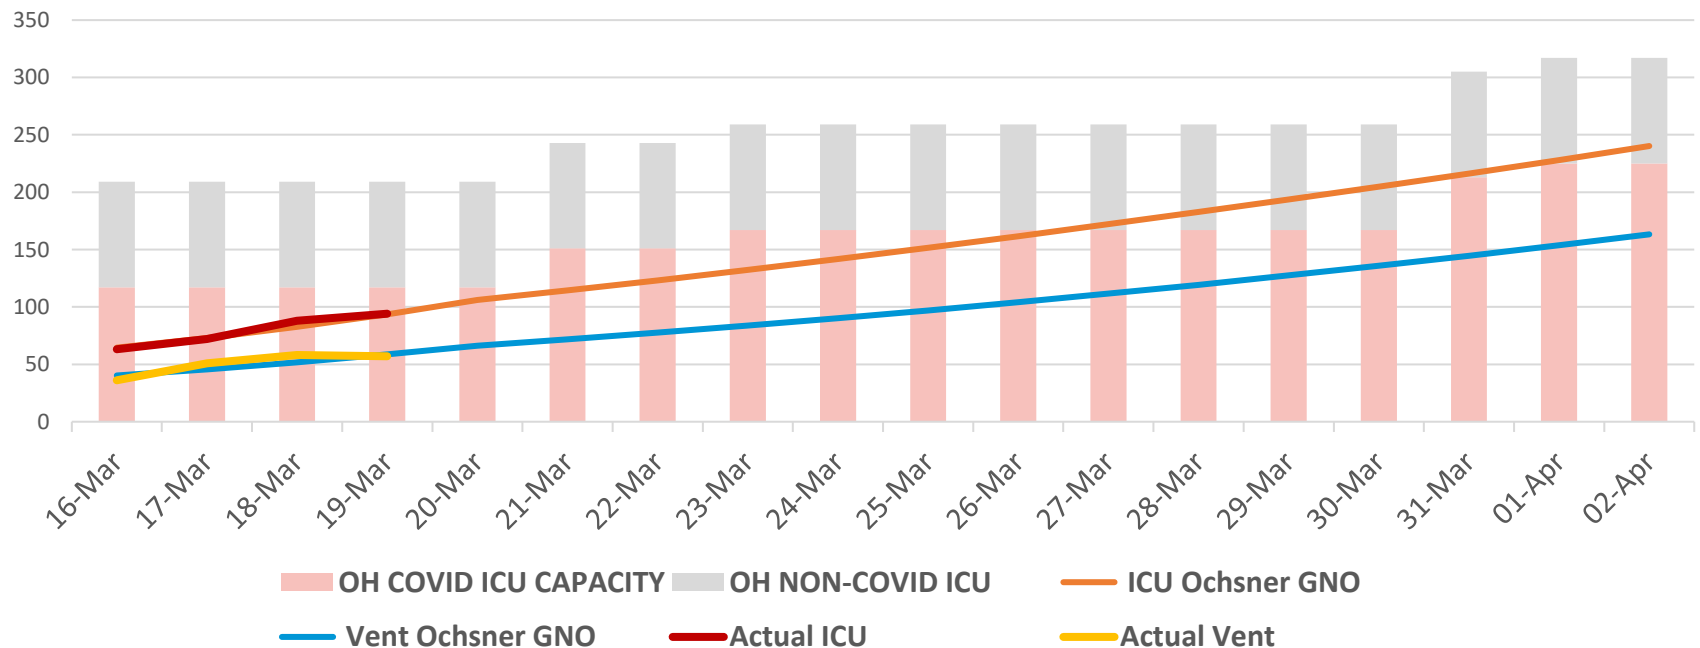

Question 1

→ How are you all doing during this?

Ochsner COVID-19 ICU Utilization Projection – Greater New Orleans Only

Ochsner GNO 28 Day ICU, Vent Prediction Compared to Actual Social Distancing on 3/16

Question 2

→ What did you do in preparation/anticipation for COVID-19

Question 3

→ What has surprised you, and what did you do in response?

Question 4

→ How big of a role have WFH and telehealth played?

Question 5

→ What has worked well in your teams COVID-19 response so far?

Question 6

→ What might you have done, or be currently doing, differently?

Question 7

→ What lessons learned would you share with programs in preparation?

Questions?

→ CAPC COVID-19 Response Resources:
<https://www.capc.org/toolkits/covid-19-response-resources/>